DETAILED ACTION

REJECTIONS WITHDRAWN

1. There are no rejections withdrawn.

REJECTIONS REPEATED

2. All of the 35 USC 103(a) rejections set forth in the non-final rejection of 9/1/05, pages 2-4, paragraphs 4-5 are repeated for the reasons of record. Applicant has added the term "laminated" to claims 1 and 6. However, the method of forming a product is not germane to the patentability of the product in a product claim (MPEP 2113) and a the rubberized coating of Fenwick coating is a waterproof film whether it is laminated or sprayed or applied by any known coating or adhesion method. Applicant has replaced the term "photo" with the term "printed". However, a photo reads on the term printed because a photo is printed and thus Bourdelais discloses a printed film.

NEW REJECTIONS

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- Claims 7-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fenwick (US 1959782) in view of Bourdelais et al. (US 5874205).

Fenwick discloses that the waterproof film is cylindrical because Fenwick discloses a flexible tubular member (page 1, lines 87-104).

ANSWERS TO APPLICANT'S ARGUMENTS

5. Applicant's arguments of 11/30/05 have been carefully considered but are deemed unpersuasive.

Applicant has argued that there is insufficient motivation to combine Fenwick with Bourdelais because the presence of a photo on the surface of Fenwick would not be considered obvious since this object is used, for relatively rough work such as firefighting and such a photograph would not hold up well under such conditions. However, such a statement is speculation and the motivation to provide printed matter, a photo, is self evident since one of ordinary skill in the art would be able to provide instructions for fighting fires or a photo of a fireman to improve moral among firefighters or advertise to the public about firefighting.

Applicant has added the term "laminated" to claims 1 and 6. However, the method of forming a product is not germane to the patentability of the product in a product claim (MPEP 2113) and a the rubberized coating of Fenwick coating is a waterproof film whether it is laminated or sprayed or applied by any known coating or adhesion method. Applicant has replaced the term "photo" with the term "printed". However, a photo reads on the term printed because a photo is printed and thus Bourdelais discloses a printed film.
